

ROUND 4 INTERVIEW
October 30, 2022

KEVIN YU (-17)

Q. Kevin, kind of a tough day, but I mean, overall, 1 under par, how would you assess the week as a whole?

KEVIN YU: It's a solid week, for sure. Being here and hitting some good, really good golf shots out here. I mean, the wind is really big factor out here the last two days being really, really windy. Just being able to hit a lot of solid shots, hit some fairways, make some putts, it's a lot of fun, yeah.

Q. This great finish gets you into next week at Mayakoba. How big is that for you in your young career here to be able to have another start and get a nice little stretch going?

KEVIN YU: It's huge for me. I knew before this week I'm not getting into Mayakoba, I need like a top-10 or win or even a sponsor invitation to get me to the next week. This week, coming to this week, you know, definitely put that in mind, but just want to play some good golf for this week because I know if I just play solid, I have a lot of chance to us being top-10 and get into next week. Yeah, just really good for me because I think my ranking for my category's like 44 is pretty, kind of pretty far behind. In the fall I won't get into this week, maybe not even Houston, so just got to play good golf and try to get in as many as I can.
